

Tuli & Kruger – a transfrontier safari

Here is a unique, timeless corner of Africa where nature and culture combine in spectacular wildlife, breathtaking landscapes and fascinating history. This 5 night trip links two great transfrontier reserves – the Northern Tuli Game Reserve in the easternmost corner of Botswana and the Makuleke Region of the Kruger National Park in northernmost corner of South Africa – connected by the legendary Limpopo River.

Tuli Safari Lodge

Tuli Safari Lodge is set in spacious gardens along the banks of the Limpopo River against a backdrop of stunning sandstone outcrops. Each day brings a new adventure as Tuli offers a truly authentic wildlife experience, with guided game drives, bush walks and hides tucked away in the bush. Cosy suites, a sparkling pool and a very warm welcome await your return to the lodge.

The Outpost

The Outpost is dramatically sited on a hill overlooking the Luvuvhu River, with each of the contemporary suites and their award-winning bathrooms offering full views of the surrounding bush. Guided early morning and late afternoon/evening games drives conducted by professional guides will take you through the most scenic and diverse region of the Kruger National Park.
