Directions via Pont Drift from Johannesburg to Tuli Safari Lodge 507km 5h00

Follow the N1 to Polokwane (298km) then the R521 to Alldays (149km) (sign post to Dendron). At Alldays take a right turn signed to Pont Drift (58km). From the border post turn left for 3.9km, turn left again at the TSL sign and drive the remaining 1.5km to lodge. Please note that the Limpopo River is the international boundary, and must be crossed in order to enter Botswana – so please check with us before you travel. When the Limpopo isn't crossable, guests can cross to Botswana using a passenger cable car and vehicles left at the border and your guide will meet you on the South African side and assist you.

Directions via Platjan from Johannesburg to Tuli Safari Lodge 576km 7h41min

Please note that the Limpopo River crossing at Platjan is via a 3m wide causeway. If the Limpopo River is flowing too strongly, it cannot be crossed - the alternative then is to drive down to Martin's Drift (see below). Follow the N1 north to Polokwane (298km) then the R521 to Alldays (149km) (sign post to Dendron). Drive through Alldays past the Bosveld garage. After 5kms there will be a sign post to Platjan (or Dardanelles) on the right hand side. Follow this wide dirt road for approximately 35kms. Cross the Platjan border post and after 7.2km turn right at the T-junction towards Tuli Wilderness/Talana farms. After 19.2km turn left at the Lekkerpoet junction onto a tar road signed to Motlhabaneng and follow this road for 15km. Turn right into Motlhabaneng, * pass through the village and keep right when you come to the fork in the road. You will cross a bridge and enter the Northern Tuli Game Reserve. Continue for 32.7km until you get to a four way intersection (GPS: S 22 11 3565 E 29 00 3216) and then turn left, follow the road and pass through a veterinary gate (GPS S 22 10 5323 E 29 01 3438). Continue a further 11.7km until you reach the Tuli sign (GPS S 22 12 2021 E 29 05 5112) where you turn right and drive the remaining 1.5km to the lodge.
